Dear Parents/Carers,

Attendance Update – Penalty Notices

We hope you have had an enjoyable summer break. As you may know, every child of compulsory school age has the right to an education that meets their needs, and it is the legal responsibility of every parent/carer to ensure their child receives this education. Regular attendance is crucial for your child's success, contributing significantly to their academic progress, well-being, and future opportunities.

I would like to inform you about important updates to the rules regarding school attendance and term-time holidays. The Department for Education has recently strengthened the laws surrounding school attendance, and new mandatory guidance is now in place for all schools nationally. We kindly ask you to review the following information carefully, especially if you have any plans for holidays during term time.

From September 2024, schools are required to consider issuing a Penalty Notice if a pupil has 10 sessions (equivalent to five days) of unauthorised absence within a rolling period of 10 school weeks. A session refers to either a morning or afternoon period of the school day. The 10 sessions may accumulate through any combination of unauthorised absences, whether they occur within the same term or span across different terms or school years. It's important to note that an unauthorised session also includes students that are more than 30 minutes late to school.

Under the new framework, if a child misses 10 or more sessions due to unauthorised absences within a 10-week period, a Fixed Penalty Notice may be issued. The fine will be £80 per parent, per child if paid within 21 days or £160 per parent, per child if paid between 22 and 28 days. If the penalty notice remains unpaid, legal action may be pursued.

Additionally, only two penalty notices can be issued to the same parent for the same child within a rolling three-year period, with the second notice carrying a charge of £160 per parent, per child. Any further offences within this timeframe may lead to legal action and prosecution, which could have long-term implications.
